

Job Description

Sessional Worker Restorative Justice and Reparation

Responsible To: North Lincolnshire Youth Offending Team
Reporting to: TAAS Head Office 0845 600 1528

General Responsibility

- To work directly with young people undertaking restorative justice processes, specifically reparation as agreed by Head Office.
- To assist in working to prevent offending by children and young people.

Specific Responsibilities

- To supervise and work with one or more young people on an agreed reparation project as agreed by Head Office.
- To ensure that reparation work undertaken by young people is carried out in line with all relevant YOT policies, (specifically Health and Safety and Risk Assessment).
- To work with young people in line with any arranged intervention plan as agreed with a YOT officer.
- To provide transport for young people to and from any reparation placement or location where support work is being delivered.
- To maintain accurate records of any contact with young people on reparation placements.
- To report to Head Office any circumstances giving rise to concern relating to the safety, welfare or behavior of the young person.
- To adhere to the YOT policy and guidelines relating to anti-oppressive practice, equal opportunities, child protection, confidentiality and lone worker policy.
- To fill out specific paperwork after each session and to hand it in or post to the YOT on a daily basis as directed by Head Office.
- Participate in relevant training courses and group supervision as required.

Other Duties

- To undertake other duties, training and/or hours of work as may be reasonably required and which are consistent with the general level of responsibility and the job.
- To undertake health and safety duties commensurate with the post and/or as detailed in the YOT Health and Safety policy.
- To undertake supervised work in unsociable hours e.g. evenings and/or weekends.

Notes

- TAAS reserves the right to alter the content of this job description to reflect changes to the job or services provided without altering the general character in level of responsibility.
- The duties described in this job description must be carried out in a manner which promotes equality of opportunity, dignity and respect for all employees and services and is consistent with the YOT equal opportunities policy.
